QUESTAIR TECHNOLOGIES INC APPOINTS NEW VICE PRESIDENT, SALES & MARKETING

For Immediate Release

7th July, 2003

BURNABY, BC – QuestAir Technologies Inc. is pleased to announce the appointment of Fred Kosseim to the position of Vice President, Sales & Marketing. Mr. Kosseim brings over 23 years experience in sales, marketing, corporate strategy, and general management in the industrial gas industry. The appointment of Mr. Kosseim is an integral part of QuestAir's strategy to rapidly expand the sales of the Company's gas purification products in the industrial gas and chemical processing industries.

During his 23 year career with Air Liquide, a leading global industrial gas company, Mr. Kosseim held a number of key positions including most recently Vice President -- Process Industries, Bulk and On Site. In his most recent position, Mr. Kosseim achieved many successes including: increasing operating income in his division by 200%, tripling market share in less than 5 years, and negotiating a number of complex multi-million dollar contracts.

"Fred brings to QuestAir a reputation as an extremely capable Sales executive and a track record that speaks for itself," said Jonathan Wilkinson, President & CEO of QuestAir Technologies. "I am very pleased to have Fred join our team. His industrial gas experience and strong business acumen will be invaluable in growing QuestAir sales in the industrial marketplace. Furthermore, Fred's experience and his demonstrated leadership abilities will bring an added dimension to our management team in this important growth stage of our business."
